Transfer of Personal Data to Third Countries

The Company may transfer your personal data to countries outside the EU/EEA. If personal data is transferred to a country outside the EU/EEA, the Company will take measures to ensure that the personal data continues to be protected and will also take the necessary measures to ensure a legal transfer of the personal data to countries outside the EU/EEA.

Social Media

Regarding personal data that occurs and is processed on social media, such as LinkedIn, we refer users to the policy provided by the respective service providers for information on how each service provider processes personal data. In the Company's view, the purpose of the processing is that representatives of existing and potential partners and suppliers to the Company should be able to interact and maintain contact with the Company via social media, to contribute to good relationships with partners and suppliers. The processing is necessary for the purposes of the Company's legitimate interest to market its brand to existing and potential partners and suppliers.

Data Subject Rights

As the data controller, the Company is responsible for ensuring that your personal data is processed in accordance with applicable legislation. The Company will, at your request or on its own initiative, rectify, erase, or complete any information found to be inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading. As a data subject under applicable data protection legislation, you have the following rights:

- You have the right to request access to and rectification or erasure of your personal data, and request restriction of the processing of your personal data and object to the processing, as permitted by applicable personal data legislation. The Company will notify each recipient to whom the personal data has been disclosed regarding any rectifications or erasures of personal data, as well as the restriction of processing of data.
- Under certain conditions, you have the right to data portability, i.e., the right to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format and the right to transmit those data to another controller.
- If you do not want the Company to process your personal data for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object to such processing at any time. When the Company has received your objection, the Company will cease the processing of your personal data for such marketing purposes.
- You have the right, through a written and signed application, to obtain free of charge a register extract from the Company regarding which personal data are stored about you, the purposes of the processing, the recipients to whom the data has been or shall be transferred. You also have right to obtain information about the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, or the criteria used to determine this period, as well as information about your other specified rights.

We look forward to hearing from you if you have any complaints regarding the Company’s processing of your personal data in order to correct our processing if necessary. You also have the right to file complaints regarding the Company's processing of your personal data with the Swedish Data Protection Authority (Integritetsskyddsmyndigheten).

Security of Personal Data

You should always be able to feel safe when you provide us with your personal data. Therefore, the Company has implemented the security measures that are necessary to protect your personal data against unauthorised access, alteration and destruction. The Company will not disclose your personal data, other than as expressly provided in this Privacy Policy.

Cookies

The Company uses cookie-like techniques to collect and use data. The information is stored in the form of a file comprising encrypted login data. The Company uses cookies on its website to provide certain functions on the website, improve the website, provide personalized user experience, enhance the user experience, and offer support services.

The data collected through the use of cookies is not shared with any third parties or used for any purpose other than the purposes stated above. Cookies can be cleared, enabled, and managed via your browser settings.

Requirement to Provide Personal Data

If you do not share your personal data with the Company, the Company will not be able to fulfill its legal or contractual obligations towards you. For Shareholders, this means that you will not be able to exercise your rights as a Shareholder, including attending and voting at general meetings.

Policy Changes

The Company reserves the right to amend this policy at any time to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations or to reflect changes in our business practices. Any amendments will be communicated through appropriate channels, and the updated policy will be made available to all stakeholders.
